Di seguito il programma del Meeting:

GUE/NGL Study Days in Florence 18th - 20th November

13/11/2014

Youth, culture, trade, asylum and migration on the agenda

To mark the EU Italian Presidency, the GUE/NGL Group is organising its Study Days in Florence, Italy, from Tuesday 18th to Thursday 20th November at Palazzo degli Affari, Piazza Adua 1.

The event will focus on four main themes: youth and precariousness; neoliberal challenges to culture; TTIP and international trade policies; and asylum policies and migration (see programme below).

The meeting will be an opportunity for an exchange of ideas and the development of joint projects with civil society, trade unionists and activists.

All meetings are open to the press.

The GUE/NGL group is made up of 52 MEPs from across Europe working for peace, solidarity, social justice, equality, democracy and human rights in Europe and beyond. It is the only gender balanced group in the European Parliament.
